Vorrede.

Handbuchs gearbeitet werde; So erbot Er sich, nicht nur einige Anmerkungen und Verbesserungen einiger dunkeln und verwirrten Stellen, die in einigen Lettischen Li edern waren, mir anzuzeigen, sondern auch die Keim freye Lettische Lieder in Reime zu bringen. Er hat ab er noch ein mehreres geleistet. Nachdem seine vorige Ge meinde zu Linden Ihm mehr, als die jetzige zu aner Zeit übrig ließ seine von Gott empfangene Ge ben zum allgemeinen Besten anzuwenden. Von Ih nen haben wir also in diesem Buche

1. Viele Verbesserungen der dunkeln Stellen in den Liedern.
2. Die Uebersetzungen der Keimfreyen Lieder in Re me, die mit G. F. S. bezeichnet.
3. Einige neue Lieder, die mit G. F. S. bezeichnet.
4. Die Uebersetzung der Schmoltsischen Morgen- und Abend-Andachten in Reimen.
5. Die Uebersetzung der Passions-Andachten aus dem
Kriegischen Gebetbuch.
6. Ein Unterricht für diejenigen die zum heil. Abend
mahl gehen wollen.
7. Die Bilder die sowohl vor einem jeden Capitel Lieder stehen und in Holz geschnitten sind, als auch das Kupfer zum Titelblatt.
8. Die Uebersetzung des Nicensischen und des Arthusa
si Glaubens Bekennnisses.

Alle diese Stücke loben schon selbst ihren Urheber, der auch meines Lobes nicht bedarf. Aber wie die Freude und Ehre wird die Lettische Kirche an diesem unermüdeten Lehrer haben, wenn selbiger mit der Hilfe Gottes, derselben die Biblischen Historien, auf Historische Art, nebst einem Anhang aus der Kirchen-Historie in Lettischer Sprache, zum Gebrauch der Lettischen Schulen in die Hände geben wird. Das Werk liegt bey mir fertig und soll, wenn GOTT Leben und Gesundheit verleyhet, noch in diesem Jahr der Presse übergeben werden. GOTT stärke und erhalte diesen meinen treuen Knecht, damit das Zion Gottes, noch viele Jahre seiner schönen Gaben zu ihrer Erbauung reichlich genießen könne.

Die Ausgabe des Lettischen Handbuchs von 1744 ist die erste darin die Lieder nach der Zahl bemerkt worden. Ich habe schon damals da ich dieses Buch corrigirte, dafür gesorget, daß die Letten die Bequemlichkeit haben mögten, die Lieder, die in der Gemeine gesungen werden, nach den Nummern aufzuschlagen. Da aber in dieser Auflage, theils einige wenige Lieder ausgelassen, theils aber mehrere von neuem eingerückt worden; So dachte ich, aber fast etwas zu spät, daran, daß man für die Uebereinstimmung der Nummern in beyden Auflagen sorgen müste, damit es keine Irrung an der Gemeine geben möchte, wenn die Nummern der Lieder, die in der Gemeine gesungen werden sollen, aufgestellt werden. Es waren fast schon 200 Lieder abgedruckt, da es mir, unter den vielen Geschäften, die mir obliegen, erst einfiel daß die Nummern in diesen beyden Auflagen nicht übereinstimmen würden.

Ich erinnerte mich dieses zwar, wie gedacht, etwas spät, jedoch, weil damals nur erst kaum der dritte Theil des Gesangbuchs abgedruckt war; so hielt es mich für rathamer, in denen noch übrigen Liedern, auf die Uebereinstimmung der Nummern zu sehen, als die Uebereinstimmung gar zu unterlassen, weil die erstere Auflage noch in vielen Händen. Ich bemerkte von Stund an die Uebereinstimmung der Nummern ganz genau. Musste ein Lied ausgelassen werden, so ward die Nummer des ausgelassenen Liedes allein hingesezt. Sollte aber ein oder mehrere neue Lieder eingeschaltet werden, so wurden die vorigen Nummern mit dem Unterscheidungszeichen a. b. c. beybehalten, damit das folgende alte Lied seine Nummer richtig wieder behalten konnte. Was aber in dem Anfange dieses Gesangbuchs darin ersämet worden, kann wohl nicht füglich, als fünf bey einer neuen Auflage verbessert werden. Indes ist der Unterscheid nicht groß und betrifft dazu nur die Zeit-Lieder, die nicht an allen Sonntagen gesungen werden.

Von Druckfehlern kann dieses Buch ohnmöglich frey seyn, welche jedoch nicht merklich sind, den Verstand nicht irren und gar wohl entschuldiget werden können, wenn man nur folgendes ohne Vorurtheil erwägt.

1. Die Correctur dieses Buchs habe ich unter mehren überhäuftten Geschäften selbst übernehmen müssen, weil ich dazu keinen andern zuverlässig ausmachen können. Außer daß ich mich zuweilen, wenn ich meiner Amtsgeschäfte halber verreisen mußte, der Beyhülfe des geschickten Herrn Carl Hinzke Con-Rectoris der hiesigen lateinischen Schulen, bedienet habe. Wie mühsam aber die Correctur dieser Sprache sey und wie viele Aufmerksamkeiten dazu erfordert werde, zumalen wenn man unter vielen Störungen und andern Amtsgeschäften eine solche Arbeit verrichten muß, werden diejenigen am besten beurtheilen können, die jemals ein Buch corrigiret haben.

2. So ist auch der Correctur-Bogen mir nur einmal vermittelt der Post zugesandt worden und hat auch wieder mit der ersten Post zurück gehen müssen, denn einen Revidir-Bogen habe bekommen, weil ich für das Werk noch einmal so lange wäre aufgehalten und das Post-Geld von Königsberg bis Memel noch einmal so stark, dem Herrn Verleger zur Last angelaufen wäre.

3. Ist die Lettische Sprache dem Seher fremd, und zu bewundern, daß nicht noch mehrere Druckfehler sich eingeschlichen.

4. Da es einmal beliebt war, daß das Buch mit gespalteten Columnen sollte gedruckt werden, so fand sich auch dabey die Schwierigkeit, daß der Raum auf welchen die Druckfehler beyder Columnen fallen angezeigt werden, fast zu schmal fiel. Wenn man gleich auf dem schmalen Rande zuweilen 6. 8. oder mehrere Druckfehler angezeigt wurden, so konnte solches nicht anders als mit der feinsten Feder geschehen, und da war es leicht möglich, daß der Seher unter den vielen angezeigten Fehlern einen oder den andern nicht bemercket und unausgehoben, stehen lassen. Welches jedoch, wie oben schon angezeigt, nirgends den Sinn der Schrift ändert und also, in Betrachtung anderer Umstände leicht entschuldiget werden kann.

S. 14.

Es ist also dieses Werk unter Gottes Beystand zum Ende gebracht. Der sey nun auch, für die dazu verliehene Gesundheit und Kräfte gelobet. Er segne über auch aufs neue dieses Buch an den Seelen aller, die es lesen werden, daß dadurch seine Ehre und ihre Seeligkeit befördert werde. Unter welchem herzlichem Antwunsche ich den frommen Leser, der Göttlichen Gnade zu allem Wohlergehen empfehle. Rietau, den 9. Januarii 1754.

dem guten Geist Gottes getrieben worden, sich der Seelen ihrer Unterthanen, mit mehrern Ernst, als vorhin gesehen war, anzunehmen, und den Seelsorgern zur Ausbreitung des Christenthums ihre vermögende Hand zu bieten. Es sind hin und wieder Schulen angeleget worden, wo vorher keine gewesen, und man hat nicht nur den armen Letten erlaubt, sondern sie auch mit allem Nachdruck angehalten, lesen zu lernen. Und hiedurch hat das Wort Christi angefangen, reichlicher, als jemals zuvor, unter uns zu wohnen. Gott sey diesen gesegneten Werkzeugen zur Ausbreitung seines Gnaden-Reichs Sonne und Schild, Er gebe Ihnen Gnade und Ehre, und laße kein Gutes mangeln, den Frommen.

Wir sehen nun den seligen Zeiten mit Verlangen entgegen, daß das Reich Christi noch mehr ausgebreitet werde und eine glühende Kohle die andere anzünden mögte. Ach! mögten doch die betrübten und gerechten Klagen der Wächter des Lettischen Zions, über die merckliche Hindernisse des Christenthums, welche Ihr nunmehr in Gott ruhender Vorsteher, der seel. Herr Superintendentens Gräven in seiner Vorrede zu der Auflage des Lettischen Gesangbuchs 1744. ganz nothwendig angebracht, einmal gehoben und gründlich abgemacht werden; So würde es bald in unserm Lande noch heller werden, und wir würden GOTT und der Ewigkeit mit freudigern Gewissen entgegen gehen können.

Daß wir uns eine Rechnung auf die Erfüllung unserer fröhlichen Hoffnung mit der Zeit machen können, erhellet aus dem Verhältnis der vorigen und jetzigen Zeiten, in Ansehung der buchstäblichen Erkenntnis des Göttlichen Worts. Wie wenig waren vor 30. Jahren derer Letten in unserm Lande, die da lesen konnten? Man hatte sich viele Jahre mit dem Lettischen Gesangbuch, welches der seel. Herr Superintendent Adolphi in 4to drucken lassen, behelfen können, bis es einmahl nöthig ward dasselbe von neuem aufzulegen. Der seel. Herr Superint. Gräven bemühet sich dieses Buch im Jahr 1727. wiederum in derselben Form in Mitau auflegen zu lassen und machte die Auflage nur von 1000. Exemplar. Man konnte sich aber dennoch mit dieser Auflage bis 1744. und also 17. Jahr behelfen. Hierauf trat im Jahr 1744. eine andere Auflage dieses Buchs in 8vo ans Licht, welche Herr Johann Heinrich Hartung in Königsberg in seinen Druck und Verlag nahm und die Anzahl dieser Auflage auf 6000. Exemplar in verschiedenen Sorten Papier machte. Der seel. Herr Superint. Gräven besorgte dazu einigen Vorschuß, und trug mir, da ich damals Lettischer Pastor in Libau war, die Correctur dieses Buchs auf. Diese 6000. Exemplare sind, in Zeit von 9. Jahren alle veräußert worden. Daraus zu ersehen, daß die Zahl derer, die in diesen letztern 9. Jahren lesen gelernt um ein merkliches zugenommen.

Da nun dieses Buch abermal ganz vergriffen war, mußte man wieder auf eine Auflage bedacht seyn, und weil unsere Buchdruckerer noch nicht im Stande war ein solches Werk zu übernehmen, so gab die hohe Landes Regierung mit Befehl, daß ich mich wegen der neuen Auflage dieses Buchs mit dem vorigen Verleger, Herrn Johann Heinrich Hartung, in eine Unterhandlung einlassen sollte, welche hauptsächlich unter folgenden Bedingungen zum Stande kam: Daß

1. Der Herr Hartung ohne Vorschuß das Werk in seinen Druck und Verlag nehme.
2. Für die Reinigkeit des Drucks und Papiers Sorge.
3. Und doch der Preis des Buchs nicht höher als bey der erstern Auflage, ohnerachtet diese um ein vieles vermehrter, gesetzt werde.
4. Daß ich die Correctur des Werks über mich nehme.

Der Anfang zum Druck ward in dem verwichenen 1752. Jahre im Monath December gemacht und alle Woche wurden mir 1. auch wohl 2. Bogen mit der Post zur Correctur zugesandt.

Es erscheinet also dieses so nöthige als nützliche Buch durch Gottes Gnade mit einem neuen Schmuck abermahl in unserm Landen. Der Haupt-Titel desselben wird also billig seyn. Curländisches neuvermehretes und verbessertes Hand-Buch ic. ic. Worin aber die Verbesserung und Vermehrung bestche, bin ich so willig als schuldig mit wenigen anzudeuten.

Die Verbesserung dieses Buchs bestehet hauptsächlich, darin: Daß alle dunckele, fremde, gezwungene und daher den ungelehrten Einwohnern dieses Landes unverständliche Wörter und Red-Arten, so in den Liedern und Gebetern hin und wieder anzutreffen waren geändert und in deren Stelle, andere deutliche, bekannte und verständliche Wörter und Wortfügungen durchgängig gesetzt worden. Diese Arbeit war nöthig. Denn warum sollten in einem Buche, welches vornehmlich zur Erbauung des einfältigen Land-Volks gewidmet ist, dunckele und unverständliche Wörter, Red-Arten und Wort-Fügungen, von Zeit zu Zeiten ungeändert bleiben, da doch die Andacht des Lesers dadurch nothwendig gestöret ward.

Es könnte zwar manchen bedenklich scheinen, daß sonderlich in den Liedern, welche von einer ganzen Gemeinde gesungen werden, einige Wörter, ja wohl halbe und ganze Verse, an denen man sich schon gewöhnet, geändert worden; Allein wenn man dagegen bedenketh, daß nur solche Wörter und Redarten geändert worden, die entweder dunckel, fremde und unverständlich, oder verworren, zweydeutig und manchem Mißverständige unterworfen gewesen; So ist es ja viel rathsamer und besser, solche dunckele Stellen auszubessern, als die Einfältigen in der Unwissenheit und unter so vielen Anstößen zu erhalten. Wer den Unterscheid in diesen beyden Auflagen bemercken wird, der wird aus der Vergleichung der geänderten Stellen leicht mercken können

warum die Veränderung vorgenommen und wird solche mit Danck annehmen.

§. 8.

Einige wenige Lieder, in welchen entweder die Lettische Dichtkunst sehr schlecht angebracht war, oder die doch zur Erbauung nicht viel beitragen mögten, sind, um das Werck nicht unnöthig zu vergrößern, weggelassen; Darüber sich hoffentlich niemand beschweren wird, weil ohnedem, derer zur Erbauung dienlichen Lieder, eine hinlängliche Anzahl geblieben.

Zur Verbesserung dieser Auflage kann man auch dieses noch rechnen, daß die Evangelia und Episteln nach der neuesten Auflage der Lettischen Bibel abgedruckt worden, damit, wenn jemand diese Texte in der Bibel aufschlagen wollte, auch hierin die genaueste Uebereinstimmung antreffen mögte.

Daß die Columnen durch das ganze Buch, in dieser Auflage gespalten, hat zwar die Correctur des Drucks, zumalen da der Rand dadurch schmal worden, um ein vieles schwerer gemacht; Es gehöret aber auch dieses würcklich zur Verbesserung des Wercks, weil es dem einfältigen Leser viel angenehmer seyn muß, kurze, als lange Zeilen zu lesen. Der Druck, das Format und Papier werden sich schon selbst dem Leser bey dem ersten Anblick anpreisen.

Was die Vermehrung dieser Auflage anlanget, so wird solche der Augenschein am besten zeigen. Sie bestehet aber sowohl in Liedern, als auch in Gebetern und andern Stücken. Die neuen Lieder, die mit J. B. bezeichnet, habe, nach dem geringen Vermögen, so mir Gott gegeben, zur Erbauung der Letten verfertiget. Es werden derselben etwa an der Zahl 14. seyn, welche als Versuche eines noch ungeübten Lettischen Dichters, von Kennern ein geneigtes Urtheil erwarten.

Die übrigen neuen Lieder in dieser Auflage, die mit G. F. S. bezeichnet, hat die Lettische Kirche dem Fleiß und der Geschicklichkeit des Wohllehrwürdigen und Wohlgelehrten Herrn Gotthard Friedrich Stender, treufleißigen Pastoris der Christlichen Gemeine zu Raymen in Litthauen zu verdanken. Dieser treue und geschickte Lehrer hat nicht nur die Lettische Sprache vollkommen in seiner Gewalt, wie solches aus dem ohnlängst heraus gegebenen Gedicht: Nahms laik's pehz peh: kona breefmas: Die auf ein hartes Ungewitter erfolgte Stille, welches wohl von allen Kennern dieser Sprache den größten Beyfall verdienet, erhellet; Sondern er hat auch seine rühmliche Erfahrung unermüdet angewandt den Schatz der Erkenntnis Gottes unter den Letten zu vermehren.

So bald als es diesem fleißigen Gottes Mann beykam ward, daß an einer neuen Auflage des Lettisch
